We are conducting a survey on how households operate and on people's money habits. The purpose of this surveys is to understand different level of household access and constraint to the financial services. Any information you give us is strictly confidential and we will not share your individual answers with anyone outside of our organization. I would now like to speak to someone who can tell me some basic information about everyone in this household and about money related matters. This might be the head of the household, or someone who knows most about everyone who lives here. Could I please speak to that person now?
